VOL. XXIX EIGHTEENTH YEAR. RICHMOND RECORD-HERALD SATURDAY, APRIL 26, 1919 NUMBER 85

WELCOME FOR SOLDIERS TO BE JOINED IN BY ALL

Elaborate arrangements have been perfected by Chairman Charles J. Crary and his executive committee for the big Welcome Home and Victory Bond celebration which is to take place in this city Monday.

Among the speakers announced for the occasion are Miss Louise Esola, army nurse, who has just returned from the war zone in Europe, where she was with American Base Hospital No. 102; Sergeant Ross Calfee,, who took part in all the hardest fought battles of the war in France, being a member of Co. B, 363rd. Infantry; ex-Governor J. N. Gillett and Mayor W. L. Lane.

The committee desires to make the announcement that during the time the soldiers, sailors and marines are having their dinner, their wives, sweethearts and lady friends can assemble at the Richmond Club House, where they may meet their army friends.

MONDAY WILL BE BUSY DAY FOR THE PEOPLE OF CITY

The primary election will take place on Monday, and the candidates today are making their last appeal to the voters for their support and will leave their individual cases in the hands of the electors when they go to bed this evening. For the most part the electors have made up their minds, and no work that can be done now will change the results.

Monday will be a busy day for the voters, for not only have they got the election on hand, but they must welcome home the soldiers, and they are going to do that right royally with the gigantic pageant in the evening and the reception that is to be tendered to the heroes in the evening by the Red Cross, aided and abetted by the entire population of the city.

MASS MEETING FOR IRISH FREEDOM

There will be a mass meeting in support of the cause of Irish freedom next Tuesday evening in the Richmond Club House. Judge Isidore Golden and Supervisor W. H. McCarthy of San Francisco and other speakers will address the meeting.

The public is cordially invited.

CALIFORNIA WINE HEAVY BONDHOLDER

The California Wine Association has purchased $200,000 worth of Victory Loan Bonds through the Anglo-California Trust Company of San Francisco. This makes the total holdings of the company of Liberty Loan bonds $4,400,000.

The purchases were of the 4 3-4 per cents, which the wine association officials believe best for their organization, because they are tax free and yield a fair return, considering their high character.

Victory Loan leaders were pleased with the subscription, not alone for the amount, but as an indication of the support which the wine interests will give the government's last popular loan.

CARRY IS STRONG MAN IN RACE FOR COUNCILMAN AT THE PRIMERY

M. H. Carey, who resides at 24 Martina avenue, on the west side, and a candidate for councilman at the primary election to be held on Monday, is generally conceded to be one of the strong men in the race. He has been a resident of the city for a number of years, and is one of the head men in the steam fitting department of the Standard Oil Works.

Carey is in the contest at the behest of his many friends, and those who believe in good government, and his candidacy is meeting with favor everywhere.

Another big thing in Carey's favor is that he is from the Point, and the sentiment of the voters seems to be that the west side should have representation.

Carey is a member of the Steamfitters union, and every man of that organization and their friends are doing everything possible to help him win in his campaign.

Admission will be free, and a cordial welcome is extended to all.

MEXICAN WAR VETERANS TO MARCH IN PARADE

Mexican War Veterans will take their places in the parade Monday evening in the same division and immediately behind the Spanish War Veterans, according to the arrangements of Grand Marshal Donnelly.

GEORGE W. CUSHING
Prominent business man and candidate for Councilman at the Primary Election to be held in this city on Monday, May 28th.

CUSHING GIVES LAST MESSAGE TO VOTERS AT PRIMARIES

A Last Word to the Voters—

You will go to the polls Monday and vote for three candidates for the office of councilman. A councilman is your business manager, so far as city affairs are concerned, and you should vote for those whom you believe will handle the affairs of the city in the same careful manner that they would care for their private business.

In running for the office I am making a sacrifice, but I believe that every man should make such sacrifice. I have been in business for the past eighteen years, and for the past eleven years have been a resident and taxpayer of Richmond. My interests are here, and my interests are your interests.

I promise that I will give you a clean, honest, businesslike administration, and that I will make it my business to see that the taxpayers get value for every dollar of their money that is expended.

During my business experience, I have always been the friend of labor, and at all times have employed union men in my work, when my competitors have employed non-union men.

Between now and Monday think this matter over. I feel that I am entitled to your support, and furthermore feel that you will place your confidence in me, by going to the polls and casting your votes for me. I wish to thank you for the support I feel that I will receive.

GEORGE W. CUSHING

PYTHIAN SISTERS WILL GIVE BALL THIS EVENING

The annual ball of the Pythian Sisters will be give nthis evening at East Shore Park. There will be good music, and it is expected that a large crowd will be in attendance.

BERKELEY SUPERVISOR HERE

Redmond C. Staats, attorney-at-law of Berkeley, and supervisor for Alameda County, was in town today attending to legal business.

MUNICIPAL BAND CONCERT TO BE ATTRACTION TOMORROW

The Richmond Municipal Band has arranged a delightful program for their open air concert at the First street ball grounds, where the Redmen's carnival will be in full swing tomorrow, the last appearance of the latter organization in this city. The band program consists of music for all, from patriotic airs to religious and grand opera.

There will be a great crowd at the First street ball park tomorrow to hear the music and to pay a last visit to the carnival. The Redmen have been very successful in securing a good attendance since the carnival opened and tomorrow's affair is in the nature of a reception to their friends of the city.

ITALIAN PICNIC WILL ATTRACT LARGE CROWD ON SUNDAY

Tomorrow will be the big day for the Italians about the bay for Nido Dante Lodge No. 1040, Order of Owls, will give a grand picnic at Lafayette Park, at Stege Junction.

The parade will start at 9:30 tomorrow morning and will be headed by the Allies band. The president and orator of the day will be J. F. Fugazi of San Francisco.

The day will be spent in the playing of games, for which prizes will be offered, and there will be dancing both day and night.

The chairman of the committee of arrangements, A. Blosio, has been working hard to make the event a big success, and from the tickets that have been sold, the park will be crowded to its capacity.

It is thought the trouble over the use of the silk Italian flag that was purchased by the Italians generally will be amicably adjusted before tomorrow, and the flag will be used in the parade.

The flag is in the possession of A. Casali and G. Maggioli, and they refused to allow the flag to be used. The claim is made that the flag was not purchased by any particular organization or club, but Italian residents generally donated money for its purchase, with the understanding it was to be used by the Italians at anv of their events. In order to settle the dispute, A. Blesio, J. Perrone, G. Barbieri, G. Guisto, P. Bendi, V. Gecho, G. Grosso, S. Ferraro. A. Re, E. Bellando, G. Calcogno, E. Berghesani, P. Baggiesi, B. Parola, B. Angelo, S. Berteletto, P. Pava, F. Calegari, M. Bianci, S. Matteucci, and M. Morfini, who donated to the purchase of the flag, have brought suit in Justice Roth's court for the recovery of the flag. Justice Roth has advised that the Italians be allowed to use the flag in the parade tomorrow.

POPULAR YOUNG MAN TAKES BRIDE

Charles R. Higgins, son of Mr. and Mrs. Leland Higgins, of Richmond, was married yesterday in Oakland to Miss Edrie Free of that city.

Charles Higgins for a long time was an employee of the Standard Oil Works, and spent the most of his life in Richmond, and many of his friends here will join with the Record-Herald is wishing the young couple the greatest joy and blessings of life.

R. E. SLATTERY
Pioneer citizen and prominent business man who asks the people of Richmond for their support at the primary election Monday, May 28th.

R. E. SLATTERY THE FAVORITE CANDIDATE FOR COUNCILMAN

As the primaries draw near there is but little question among the friends and supporters of R. E. Slattery that he is going to be one of the high men to go on the ballot as a candidate for councilman at the general election in May. Mr. Slattery is one of the representative business men of the city who is out for office at this election, and the business men of the city as well as representatives of all other classes are supporting him, for he is one of the most respected men in Richmond today.

Mr. Slattery is one of the pioneers of the city, and has always taken a keen interest in its affairs, and will make an excellent legislative officer if elected to the position to which he aspires. He knows Richmond's needs, and will see to it that this city is placed in the forefront of the other cities of the state in all matters pertaining to her advancement. He is honest and fearless, and in seeking the office he has no personal axe to grind, but his sole aim will be to do the greatest good to the greatest number in administering his duties as a city councilman.

DR. NORTHCOTT BEGINS HIS FIGHT FOR FREEDOM ON MURDER CHARGE OF SLAYING MISS REED

REDWOOD CITY, April 26.—A bitter legal battle impends here today in the court of Superior Judge George H. Buck over the attempt of counsel for Dr. Ephraim Northcott, alleged slayer of Miss Ines Reed, to secure his release on bail pending trial for murder before a jury in the Superior Court.

Dr. Northcott's attorneys, H. H. McPike and J. R. Cunnyngham, of San Francisco, reached here early today, prepared to go immediately into court with a verbal motion to have the defendant admitted to bail.

On the way they were met by District Attorney Franklin A. Swart, who said that Judge Buck had instructed him to tell them that such a motion would be required in writing.

The attorneys immediately set to work drafting such a motion and said it would be ready for filing before noon.

Swart is expected to vigorously oppose Dr. Northcott's attempt to secure his freedom on bail.

Defense attorneys said that their bail motion would be predicated on their contention that there is no direct evidence connecting Dr. Northcott with the murder of Miss Reed, and that the presence of either Miss Reed or Dr. Northcott at the Highland avenue house in San Mateo has been established by no witness other than Kathryn Fisher, whose testimony they said they would contradict.

ITALIANS TO SHAPE THEIR COURSE IN MATTER OF DISCORD WITH ENVOYS IN ROME TODAY

PARIS, April 26.—Foreign Minister Sonnino and former Premier Salandra of the Italian delegation left Paris for Rome at 2 o'clock this afternoon. A large crowd of sympathizers gave them an ovation at the railway station.

PARIS, April 26.—The peace conference is watching with intense interest the result of today's developments in Rome, where Premier Orlando arrived this morning and where the events f the day are expected to disclose whether the hopes of reconciliation can be realized.

Reports received here from the American embassy in Rome are somewhat ominous as to the general state of public feeling there, as crowds have been parading the streets crying "Down with the Americans-" and "Down with the English!" and "Viva Sonnino!" the foreign minister who outdid Premier Orlando in pressing the extreme demands made by Italy.

These reports are particularly disturbing, as the American and the British delegations to the peace conference are said to have had reason to believe that Premier Orlando might adopt a course before the Italian Parliament which would lead to an amicable adjustment. Premier Lloyd George was particularly hopeful that this result would be brought about.

OPTIMISM IS CHIEF FACTOR

The biggest factor in the business outlook at any given moment is the subtle factor called "confidence."

When the business men have courage, all the producing elements get out to produce to their capacity, which keeps everybody busy earning money.

City and county banks were never working in such close touch with the farmers and wage earners, nor so closely identified with community service.

The keystone of confidence is that there is now in existence tried out in the furnace of war, the great federal reserve banking system.

Before this organization was created, the United States suffered from business depresisons about every decade or a little oftener.

The bank laws were so rigid that a perfectly sound and solvent business could be wrecked merely by a lack of ready money.

This weakness in the financial structure has now been removed by legislation that makes possible the massing of reserves to protect every solvent business.

Thus the principal cause for the old periodical panics has been removed.

The country still faces the peril of Bolshevism. But the school-educated masses of Americans will not be fooled by the follies that have deluded poor blinded Russia.

So with prudent and courageous enterprise, with justice to all elements of the working community, all clouds should evaporate in the clear sunshine of American optimism.

FIGHTING FOR BONDS

With the same fighting spirit with which she raced around two continents in the Spanish-American war, the U. S. S. Oregon is now battling for the Victory Liberty Loan. Starting from Bremerton, Washington, the famous Oregon will cruise southward, putting into all important ports of the Pacific coast in order to stimulate enthusiasm in the Loan drive.

In addition to the U. S. S. Oregon, several other ships have been assigned to cruise on behalf of the Victory Liberty Loan. On the Atlantic coast, the U. S. S. Kentucky will start at Portland, Maine, and make the New England ports. The rest of the Atlantic coast and the Gulf coast will be covered by a flying squadron of six destroyers. Two of them, the Ammen and the Beale, will be stationed at Galveston, Texas; the Burrows and the Jenkins at Charleston, S. C., and the Paulding and Terry at Norfolk, Virginia. From these ports the flying squadron will be dispatched to whatever cities need stimulus during the Victory Liberty Loan campaign.

The use of these eight ships in the campaign will be entirely independent of the trip of the Navy Victory Ship, which is on its way from San Francisco to New York, as the Victory Ship will not make any ports, but will by its progress record the nation's subscription to the Victory Liberty Loan.

HISTORY OF A CRIME

The San Francisco Call, talking about the pernicious tipping system prevalent throughout the United States and all of Europe, tells in connection therewith this story of a man who had resolved not to tip:

Once there wash a man who neglected to tip a waiter. The reason was that he had saved only a dollar for lunch and the price of strawberries, which he had carelessly neglected to ascertain before ordering, brought the bill up to ninety-five cents. Could one give an agreeable, attentive waiter five cents? No, not in America. One might, indeed, write him a check or take his address, or leave some postage stamps on the table. But these things are never done and in individualistic America a man would rather die than do anything that is never done.

Our hero did not tip the waiter. The latter helped him on with his overcoat, handed him his hat (he had ignobly evaded the check boys at the entrance) and waited his departure with as much dignity as any baron speeding a baronet on his way. There was an awful moment. Our hero coughed, pulled his hat down over his eyes and started for the door. But he had forgotten his glasses and had to go back. The waiter held them out to him. Their eyes met. Cold sweat burst out on our hero's brow. He felt like a vagabond with a ten days' beard and the remnants of a jag facing an immaculate, politely superior police court judge, and being asked what he had to say for himself.

Could they two have met as human beings, he thought, all might have been well—could they have met on a desert island, on a raft in the middle of the Atlantic, on the top of Mt. Whitney. But they were surrounded by a restaurant and by an institution. Neither could speak out of his role. But the waiter could not explain that he and his boss were victims of a practice of which he did not wholly approve, but which apparently had to be put up with, whether one liked it or not. Our hero could not make a clean breast. His role was that of the gentleman used to having things done for him at home and expecting them to be done for him abroad. The assumption was that he never put on his overcoat without help or picked up his own hat. It made no more difference than he really had to work for a living and that his wife did her own work than it does that the man who plays in Shakespearean plays is in real life not a king at all. He was as out of his assumed character as Hamlet would be with a dress suit and a cigar.

There was but one recourse—flight. He fled. And all the afternoon his sense of criminality was so strong that he involuntarily avoided policemen.

There are a great many guesses being made as to whom will qualify for the grand hurdle race at the primaries on Monday and one man's opinion is about as good as another's. Counting noses by the process of securing public opinion, it is a safe bet that Fernald will not qualify, and it is doubtful if Lane gets enough to put him in the running and if he does accomplish that feat he is destined to defeat at the polls in the general election in May. Slattery, Carey, Scott, Cushing and Hays are conceded to be strong men. They are working hard, and will make the primaries, and the sixth man may be the mayor, but he will cast about his entire strength at the primary election, while the others will absorb among them the vote of those eliminated at the priaries for the election in chief. This may be a poor guess, but it is the best that can be ascertained at this time.

The facts of the matter seem to be that none of the newspaper correspondents in Paris knows what is going on in the peace conference, which accounts for the many wild and contradictory stories that are being cabled to the United States from this source. Rumors of a resumption of the war are sent out one day to be contradicted the next. The boys are trying to convince their bosses at home that it is necessary to keep them on the ground to give them early information of happenings. That's the entire story.

THOMPSON SEEDLESS GRAPES

This variety of fruit is one of the most profitable that is produced in the San Joaquin Valley. It can be shipped green to eastern market, also be made into raisins. Vineyards of Thompsons in the Fresno district are selling for from $750 to $1,500 per acre. Escalon is ideal for Thompsons, this is fully demonstrated by a number of full-bearing vineyards in that locality. You can buy land at Escalon, plant and have cared for a Thompson seedless vineyard up to full bearing for less than $350 per acre, when it will pay that much per acre per year. Keep your job in Richmond until you want to retire, then you will have a sure income the rest of your life. Investigate Escalon district.

Showing at the Richmond Theatre tomorrow at all performances, Afternoon and Evening

GOOD VAUDEVILLE SHOW AT THEATRE ON SUNDAY NEXT

Those who enjoy good vaudeville will find it in variety and interest at the Richmond Theatre tomorrow. Manager Dan Reardon promises one of the best ever, and that means much in a house where the public is accustomed to get the latest and most popular acts.

The bill will be headed by Lyle and Harris, a stunning young man and a pretty young woman, who are entertainers from every angle of vaudeville, presenting both comedy and singing. Other numbers will be Miriam Marr, comedy comedienne; Gene Fowler, sensational hand and head balancer; Tim and Marion, comedians, and Martin and Gray in a clever and snappy act.

The picture program will include "Deuce Duncan" and a Pathe News.

Tonight, Rex Beach's play, "Too Fat to Fight," will be presented.

SAM MANN, AT OAKLAND ORPHEUM

Sam Mann, a man who makes laughs if given the one-twentieth of a chance, is making them again at the Oakland Orpheum during the coming week. It's like this: Sam Man could not find a real successor to The New Leader, in which his fame as a maker of laughs was founded; and when he gave up that offering, he preferred to lay off for a time, rather than take anything with less laughs in it.

However, Aaron Hoffman, the man who wrote the New Leader and all laugh at Koib and Dill and a few of the things that have made some others, finally got a new hunch and wrote a philosophic drama. That's what Sam Mann is to offer at the Orpheum for the coming week. It's called The Question.

Then for more laughs, Mosconi Brothers create a ripple with a wonderfully original type of dance offering, and after that, one has Polly Moran to laugh at. Polly is famous as Sheriff Nell of the Sennett film comedies and in real life she is funnier still, for, of course, she was famous in vaudeville long before she started to play in the screen drama with Wayland Trask, Mack Swain, Chester Conklin, et al.

The Sterlings offer novelty in skating tricks; Clinton Sisters interpret nationalities diversified and picturesque, and Ethel Davis and Freddie Rich offer what they term Songs a la Carte—a merry melange of peculiar and comical stuff. Albert Lloyd and Walter Percival have Two Southern Gentlemen (also an Aaron Hoffman contribution) to add to the laughing success of the bill; a Pathe and a Christie round out the program.

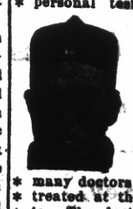

Seats are being reserved at a lively rate by the film fans longing to see Polly Moran in real life; so there is a big demand at the Orpheum and at the Broadway box office at Lenhardt's.

DEPUTY SHERIFF'S STATEMENT

Mr. A. S. Andrade, deputy sheriff, indorses the famous FONG WAN HERB TEA. His personal testimonial reads:

"Richmond
"Feb. 8, '19
"I suffered from nervousness, headache and deafness. My health was so poor that I was unable to do anything. I had tried many doctors and had also been treated at the University Clinic. The doctors there inserted an instrument into my nose for the purpose of restoring my hearing. Its only effect was to cause me awful pain and bleeding. Then my nose also became stopped up and my suffering was worse than before.
"At last I saw a Fong Wan Herb Tea advertisement. I went to their wonderful Herb specialist, and now after six weeks am entirely well in every way. This letter of recommendation is prompted by gratitude.

WOMEN'S WOES

Richmond Women are Finding Relief at Last.

It does seem that women have more than a fair share of the aches and pains that afflict humanity; they must "keep up," must attend to duties in spite of constantly aching backs, or headaches, dizzy spells, bearing down pains; they must stoop over, when to stoop means torture. They must walk and bend and work with racking pains and many aches from kidney ills. Keeping the kidneys well has spared thousands of women much misery. Read of a remedy for kidneys only that is endorsed by people you know.

Mrs. E. Hafer, 140 Eleventh St., Richmond, says: "I think being on my feet too much and overwork is what brings on attacks of kidney complaint. When I have an attack, I suffer from sharp pains in the small of my back and I feel miserable all over. I am tired all the time, and very nervous. I also have headaches and dizzy spells. I use Doan's Kidney Pills at these times, procured from the Richmond Pharmacy, and they soon fix me up in fine shape."

Price 60c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mrs. Hafer had. oster-Milburn Co., Mfgrs., Buffalo, N. Y.—Adv.
